

Children's Center

Saw Mill Club Afternoon Enrichment 4 Year-Olds 2011-2012

Looking for an educational, fun way to enhance your child's day? This class, taught by an experienced teacher, is designed to provide a stimulating, small group atmosphere where the teacher and teacher's assistant will be able to work one on one with your child. Through structured reading and writing "readiness" activities, the program will help to transform your child into a more accomplished learner. There is a special activity assigned to each afternoon: soccer, tennis lesson, kidsercise and swim lesson. This program follows the Bedford Central School District snow closings and school holidays.
