

Children's Center

Camp Saw Mill 2010 Counselor in Training

Reference

Name of applicant: _____ Date: _____

Reference's name: _____ Title: _____

Relationship to applicant: _____

Length of relationship: _____

Camp Saw Mill is a summer day camp for boys and girls three to ten years old. The Camp Saw Mill Counselor In Training program is a hands-on learning experience to develop program leadership skills and techniques for working with campers. CITs will be an important part of our camp community and will be role models for young campers. Applicant must be 13 or 14 years old.

We are interested in your knowledge of the applicant related to:

- Leadership skills and experience
- Ability to serve as a role model for younger children
- Experience working with children
- Level of responsibility and judgment
- General work or study skills
- Ability to be a positive member of a community

Please share additional comments you feel give us insight into the applicant (Please use additional paper to complete your comments.)

Would you recommend this applicant for a CIT program? _____

Signature: _____ Phone# _____

Thank you for your help!